

MV FILM SOCIETY

Beautiful morning,

We'd like to thank our friends at Magnolia Pictures for working with us quickly to make available three essential documentaries that raise black voices: I AM NOT YOUR NEGRO, TONI MORRISON: THE PIECES I AM, WHOSE STREETS? in our Film Center at Home. A portion of your ticket proceeds will be donated to Black Lives Matter Boston and ACLU Massachusetts.

Also want to highlight a new film by Menelek Lumumba, 1 ANGRY BLACK MAN. It tells the story of Mike Anderson, a senior at a New England liberal arts college. After an erroneous arrest for a crime he did not commit, Mike's story transitions to an existential conversation about gender dynamics, racism, and class, as well as an empirical study of the works of four iconic Black intellectuals: from James Baldwin to Zora Neale Hurston.

"You come out of the movie wanting to head immediately to a library."

Ty Burr, Boston Globe
